Gospel Bluegrass 16 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Country Gospel, COUNTRY: Bluegrass Details: This is the first album by The Gospel Creek Bluegrass Band. If you liked our current recording "Cross 'N' The Creek", I am sure you will like this one. This album was professionally recorded in 1966, by Grammy Award winner Jim Hawthorne at Spirit Wind Studios in Hayward California. The Gospel Creek Bluegrass Band has been praising God's Holy name in bluegrass for about 20 years. We are based in the Oakland Bay Area. Rich Ferguson - banjo, dobro, vocals I am a retired Firefighter and born again believer. One Christmas my wife bought me a banjo and my life hasn't been the same since. I am currently building a hot rod milk truck that the band will use. You can see us and the milk truck at gospelcreek.com. Debra Ferguson - bass, vocals At the time of recording this album, Debra was not yet married to rich. Her last name was Dalton. Debra is the serious, but ditzzy member of the band. However, she laughs easily and enjoys singing with all her heart. She also sings in the choir at church. She is a kindergarten teacher and is married to Rich, the banjo player. She has been walking with the Lord over 30 years and wishes to please Him in all she does. Carol Lemos - guitar, vocals Carol is Debra's sister so we had to let her be in the band. She is married to Gary, and they have 4 children. She has been playing bluegrass music for the past 30 years. Ray Dawley - mandolin Born and raised in the Bay Area. He has been married for 15 years to his wife Sue and has 2 children, Hannah 13 and Taylor 5. He has been in public education for 18 years both as a teacher and administrator. In addition to playing bluegrass, both Ray and Sue have been active on their church worship teams. Julie Smolin - fiddle One of the best fiddle players in the Bay Area. Julie lives in San Francisco and is not currently playing with any bluegrass groups. Chuck Nelson - guitar Chuck is a retired police officer. We hope that the Gospel Creek Bluegrass Band is a blessing to you and draws your focus to the Lord. We hope to reflect the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. All praise belongs to Him.
