Simply put, Jackass kicks ass, with a style that defies modern rock cliches' in favor of older ones they mix it with modern sonic to make good 'ol hard rock music. 15 MP3 Songs ROCK: Hard Rock, METAL: 70's Metal Details: Hailed by some as the loudest band in North America, and loved by many for being the loudest band in North America, Jackass has been leading its own exodus to the Promised Land of Rock. Blazing a trail for over two years now, winning over new followers along the way with deafening grace. After sweeping both the Cincinnati Enquirer and CityBeat Magazine awards for Best Hard Rock Band in 2002, Jackass followed up with their debut release "Donkey Style" in May of 2003. The new album "Touch of Ass" is nearing completion and should hit the shelves before the Spring of 2006. Jackass is back, and THAT'S A FACT JACK !!!!!!! "Donkey Style" kicks hard in a tasty, heavy cocktail that shakes together potent rock with refreshing humor and a down-home redneck vibe. - Larry Nager, Cincinnati Enquirer At 11:00pm, the Mad Frog got a dose of "mad music" from a hardcore rock band called Jackass (what a stupid name!!) The first song was about beer.....the fellas did some serious rock guitar army make.....HARDCORE TO THE MAX!! ... Heavy drumbeats were probably heard about four blocks from the club! pond.com, review "A poem: Roses are red, violets are blue, Jackass kicks ass..." - Jake Hollyfield, The Citizen Newspaper "We need you guys out here in Seattle... you guys are hot!!!" - Julie, Club Rock-n-Roll " 'Donkey Style'... has everything required to kick the make out of you and still leave you craving more...."Craig Mckitterick justwannarock.com " The band starts the CD at 90 miles an hour, and charges full speed ahead through the entire album, never slowing down, never turning down! It's pure adrenaline-pumping, throw-your-hands-in-the-air, shake your ass rock and roll that lasts for nearly 40 minutes! If Jackass were driving a race car, it'd be a top-fuel dragster, gunning off the line at top speed, and only slowing down when the race was over. Does that give you any indication of the type of band we're looking at here? This is a ROCK band!"Mark Lush midwestbands.com Toy: Vocals, Gibson Gtr.
