Take pop music and add a splash of country and rock giving you a unique down-to-earth feel. Lyrics from the heart and piano from the soul are the roots each song came from. 12 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, COUNTRY: Country Pop Details: To most people, Im known only as a professional golfer. Which, is pretty cool actually, but what Ive kept to myself for so long just didnt seem right anymore. Music has always been a major part of my life. Whether it was dancing, singing, playing the piano, there was always some music going around in my head. The funny thing is that friends and family always knew about me being a dancer, and they also new I took a couple years of piano in elementary school, but not necessarily as someone who could create my own music. Sure, I would sing at the top of my lungs which I learned very early had to be done when no one was around. But when I did sing I felt an undeniable passion. Piano became amazing when I discovered that I could make up my own songs, and so I did. When no one was home I would go to the piano and just play and sing my heart out all of the songs dancing around in my mind; but as soon as I heard a car door... silence. So the secret lived on. The temptation to just play the piano when family was around would do me in on occasion, and so I would be asked, what song is that? And my reply would be, oh just something I made up. I always remember being asked, what do you want to be when you grow up? And my answer wanted to be a pop-star, but I knew that Id get funny looks, so I would give my stock answer of something normal. I truly just wanted to be like Janet Jackson. Then in high school I discovered golf... what does this have to do with music? Nothing. But it led me to the career path I chose. Now an LPGA Teaching Golf Professional who loves to teach others the game... always wondering what if I had just listened to my heart and let the world know that I love singing, creating songs on my piano and watching them evolve to the music that plays so loudly in my head. Golf has been such a blessing in that it brought me to my soul mate, to places I never wouldve seen and has given me experiences that are incredible. The experience that stands out most was a tournament that I was fortunate enough to be a part of which people still talk about to this day. The 1996 US Amateur Finals when my boyfriend, Steve Scott (now husband) and Tiger Woods battled it out for 38 holes until Tiger made the winning putt on that 2nd hole of sudden death to beat Steve. Why was that a big deal? Well, Tiger made history that day when he won his 3rd consecutive Amateur title... and how was I a part of that? Well, lets just say I owe many thanks to Johnny Miller for giving me such great compliments as I proudly carried Steves bag- yes, Im that blonde caddie that he ended up marrying a few years later! The experiences Steve and I had chasing his dream to become a member of the PGA Tour have so much to do with the inspiration of many of my songs. Golf taught me so much about me, and with my piano Im able to fully express whats been in my soul. And its been an incredible journey to see how so many others are able to relate to my songs- whether they golf or not. I guess this is why when they say its never too late to chase your dream, its true. Its now my turn to chase mine.
