Details: Tiffany Shea is an award winning American singer-songwriter known for her powerfully structured and emotionally intense songs that tackle a wide range of subjects, including the rigors of modern love, spirituality and personal tragedy. Acclaimed by her contemporaries, Shea consistently reconciles her love/hate relationship with a fickle music industry by recording albums brimming with original material, and this is reflected in the company she keeps - having been billed with the likes of B. B. King, Ani DiFranco, BareNaked Ladies, and Natalie Merchant. Tiffany Shea has recently expanded her resume by writing "Phoenix" - a collection of hits demonstrating the expressiveness of her four-octave voice. The album retains the eccentric, idiosyncratic, and literary lyrical edge for which Shea is best known; and her eclectic and meticulous musical and production styling continues to bolster her fan base on both sides of the Atlantic.  * NATIONAL PRESS QUOTES * "If 'good' was a genre, Shea would be the Poster Child." --- Chicago Tribune (Illinois) "Tiffany Shea is hardly a gentle balladeer with a wounded heart. She sings with raw passion and throws down energetic shows of original alt-pop-rock. Shea is a cool jewel with an attitude..." --- Fort Worth Star Telegram (Texas) "I watched as kids in their teens stood just inches from the stage hanging on to her every word...they were caught in a trance that she wove with her vibrant voice, animated facial expressions and intermittent sincere dialogue." --- strutteronthetown.com "She's got a tight band and a strong voice on her own often angst-filled songs which lose neither power nor promise in translation." --- Buddy Magazine (Texas)

"Musical Sushi...Raw, Delectable, Modern and Entertaining." --- Go!Triad (N. Carolina) "The Tiffany Shea Band is like the little engine that could." --- The Boston Weekender (Massachusetts) "Tiffany Shea puts the rock where it needs to go." --- Creative Loafing, Atlanta (Georgia) "Her songs deliver universal themes in a pop-flavored package." --- Dallas Morning News (Texas) "She's become a consistent presence at every imaginable club since the late 90's... her pipes are undeniably expressive, and she generates real heat with bluesy-passion." --- The Austin Chronicle (Texas) "She's also a hoot. Shea played more than three hours of original music at her CD Release party, then she attended the Grammy Awards by creating a fake employee identification card, wearing a fake uniform, sneaking inside the convention center, then changing into a dress, and using another faked all-access pass. That kind of chutzpah, combined with obvious talent and stage presence, makes Shea a favorite of yours and ours." --- FW Weekly, (Fort Worth, TX)  Fun Facts *150-250 shows per year in the US and Europe (focusing on the UK and Italy) since 1997. *Dallas and Fort Worth Local Music Awards: Best Alternative Rock Band, Best Alternative Rock Album, Best Female Vocalist (twice), Best Acoustic Show (twice). *13 Albums Recorded and Released. *Magazine Covers Press: Buddy Texas Original Music Magazine (Cover March 2005), countless newspaper articles and local regional, television interviews, 'lots' of radio interviews live performances internationally. *Notable Venues Played: CBGB's (NYC), Bluebird Cafe (Nashville), Starplex Amphitheatre (Dallas), SXSW Showcases (Austin), Mardi Gras (Galveston), AFI Film Festival (Los Angeles), Solo Tour in England (March 05), Solo Tour in Italy (Dec 07), 138 show National Tour with Band (March-Dec 04) *Billed With: BB King, BareNaked Ladies, Ani DiFranco, Blondie, Lileth Fair, Jonny Lang, Jason Bonham Band, Indigo Girls, Ann Nancy Wilson (Heart), Lisa Loeb, Muddy Waters Jr., Natalie Merchant (10,000 Maniacs), Semisonic, Better Than Ezra, Fastball, Smashmouth, Patrice Pike (Rock Star: Supernova), Susan Gibson (writer of "Wide Open Spaces"), Derek Trucks Band.
