Details: Tim Kross began his career that he has amassed over the years, but it is his riveting stage presence and genuine warmth that fills the seats again and again. Tim Kross gets his amazing personality from sensational influences such as Elvis Presley Ronnie McDowell. He remains the same to this day because of his two favorite idols!! After Ronnie McDowell came out of nowhere to dazzle the world with his heartfelt and self-penned tribute song "The King Is Gone" so much more throughout the years, Tim studied his amazing talent which inspired him tremendously. "Lost In Carolina" (the original song as well as the title of the CD) was Tim's First major CD in which featured ONE Elvis Songs titled "Pieces Of My Life" FIVE of Ronnie McDowell's new old classics titled "Saturday Night Special", "Bedroom Eyes", "Step Back", "Dangerous", "What's It Gonna Take", which also made itself in the 1999-00 Grammy Catalog for 8 categories. In the spring Of 99 "Lost In Carolina" began gaining airplay on country and oldies stations in NJ such as Y-107 Country Music Radio station CBS FM 101.1 Oldies Station, all of a sudden the young man from Edison New Jersey was a popular entertainer and he quickly proved that he wasn't just a one day sensation but rather than a pleasurable, fantastic, entertainer human being (Just Like His Idol, Ronnie). Tim hopes to tour constantly someday (as Ronnie) to promote each album release he records, and build an astounding fan base throughout the country, just like McDowell. Presently, he released a single titled "I'm Coming Back To You" in which he hopes will showcase his country voice and not only his vocal similarity to the king himself. While Elvis Presley has played a big part in Ronnie McDowell's musical career, BOTH Elvis Presley Ronnie McDowell played a big part the same in Tim's. Tim hopes to continue to entertain audiences with his own blend of country excitement and hopes to be constantly in demand on the road as his idol (Ronnie McDowell) whom presently tours relentlessly with his band the Rhythm Kings as well as touring with Elvis Presley's original sidemen Scotty Moore and D. J. Fontana along with Millie Kirkham and The Jordanaires staging a tribute to Elvis Presley's music. Please,if you haven't yet experienced Tim's gift of music,you sure don't know what your missing!! Thanks Ronnie For the experiance throughout the years,for I look forward making the gift of music for so many as you did for us,ALL!! Tim Kross
