Details: It's only rock n roll but we die for it. No gimmicks. No novelties. Just rock n roll with noisy guitars, bass and drums. Bubble has toured England, Japan, the West Coast of America and the country known as Texas. We've won some awards like the Maxell Song of the Year in the John Lennon Songwriting Contest and Share won Best Female Guitarist in Los Angeles. (she won it twice!) We rock hard. We make our own cd's, videos and website. Turn us up. And live fast. Beginning in 1997 as a two piece with a vision, Bam and Share knew a good thing had happened when they found Brian Wong on bass. The third full length cd, Rock n Roll Hell says it all. Combining disgustingly hooky melodies, raspy vocals, loud guitars and punk attitudes, BUBBLE launches an attack on your senses and you will not get these songs out of your head. The brash, alterna/pop/punk leaders at the forefront of the new "glitter/garage/punk" scene. 3 tours of Japan, 2 Tours of UK, SXSW Festival and 2 full albums, and 3 eps and now this nonstop assault that guarantees a fast heart beat while listening, "ROCK N ROLL HELL!" Along with winning the John Lennon Songwriting Contest Song of the Year, Bubble have placed three songs in major films to increase international exposure. "Sparkle Star" is in the film - "Dancing At the Blue Iguana" starring Daryl Hannah and Jennifer Tilly.
