Upbeat-harmony-pop. Counting Crowes and Harry Chapin meet in 2003. Catchy hooks, excellent riffs. Great story 10 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, POP: 90's Pop Details: Dan Olsen's newest album "Racer X" is Fantastic!!! Lyrical and incredibly upbeat and powerful, this just shows Dan is at the top of his game once again. The reviews have been great! Here's the story! In the '90s Dan went strictly creative and was hired on as singer and writer of an upscale Boston Newbury Street Jingle House. There he produced catchy national advertisements for such clients as Labatt's Beer, Dunkin' Donuts, Powerball, Lechmere, Fidelity Investments, Disney, 7-11, and Tommy Hilfiger. Dan wrote songs for country crossover and charted a song ("Days When You Were Mine") in 1994. Writing songs at the studio after hours produced Dan's critically hailed, self-titled first CD in 1999 (also available at this site). This played extensively in Europe. "Racer X" is ten tightly written songs that have been called "lyrically driven, feel good pop". It evokes the pulse of the Swedish pop music god Max Martin with it's slickly produced sound. Racer X is getting A's from everyone who's able to get their hands on it..... Here's the rundown: 1. "Say Nothing" ...a billboard top five pop screamer... 2. "Christopher" ...move over Harry Chapin, there's a new kid in town... 3. "Don't Request Me" ...smokin' bluesy tongue-in-cheek stab at the music biz... 4. "Back To Back" ...this song you'll play for all your friends... 5. "Lonely Town" ...guaranteed gold, this song you'll play for all your friends but wish you'd wrote it... 6. "James (If You Were Me)" ...ballad of a friend gone astray..listen closely then call that person... 7. "Poet In The Moment" ...nice riffs, catchy hooks, will stick in your head like peanut butter... 8. "Chapter" ...harmonies, harmonies... you'll hum this one all day... 9. "Time Is Money" ...drivin' rock... I can already see the video... 10. "I'm Sure" ...tender ballad that proves we've all been there... yes even you... Who's Christopher? This one's personal. Dan is a 3-time cancer survivor and the song is semi-autobiographical. A portion of proceeds will go directly into the newly established "The Christopher Fund" sanctioned by the American Cancer Society, where it's already creating a buzz. In the close of the song it says, "...keep us here on earth, closer and strong"... more than ever isn't this the message we need to hear today?! Want more...? Dan is truly the renaissance man; 4th degree black belt, movie actor, mission leader "Youth Gone South", ski instructor, sky diver, model, (want more, he's got a million of them... contact him at danielalex16@hotmail.com).
