Danah was always performing. Weather it was on stage or in everyday life. Growing up in her home was confusing, frightening and hard to concentrate on anything but surviving. Danah's teenage years were filled with modeling and acting auditions. She landed a couple; her most recent acting role was the lead in a movie called, "Secrets." But her passion for music would not go away. Danah dreams music. She would wake up with lyrics in her head. She started to write about love, life, abuse, sex and pain. Danah feels that when a person is naked they are exposed. That's when they are most vulnerable, which leads to the title of the album, "Skin." When you listen to the songs on the album, the lyrics are deep and very personal to her, and those close to her. Danah takes vocal lessons to keep her voice strong and conditioned. She also likes to kick box, take yoga, workout, and loves to dance! All of these activities have kept her centered and prepared for performances. Some of the artists that have had an influence on Danah are Tori Amos, Sara Mcloughn, Mariah Carey, Stevie Nicks, Madonna, Gwen Stefani, Reina and Kiely Minouge. Earlier in life there was, Barbara Strisand, Diana Ross and Donna Summer's. Danah met a handful of wonderful people along the way. Some forever friends- Frank the love of her life and eventually Andrew, her dear friend and producer. It was with the support of her family, friends and a lot of hard work that she has come this far. Danah wants to share her happiness, joy, pain and sorrow through song. She wants others to be able to relate to her- to feel something when they listen to her lyrics and know that they're not alone. Ultimately she wants to make others happy. If there is one thing she has learned in this twisted world we live in is:

Life is truly what you make it. Follow your heart, never give up on your dreams, and be true to yourself..... LOVE LIFE AND IT WILL LOVE YOU BACK.
