Drawing from past experiences, situations, and relationships. This intervaded style is known as GHETTO GOSPEL. (Listen to my personal favorites track's 2,3) 14 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: West Coast Rap Details: HE DOESN'T LEAP TALL BUILDINGS, FLY, OR HAVE X-RAY VISION, BUT A REAL-LIFE CLARK KENT AND SUPERMAN HAS RISEN FROM STOCKTON, CA., AND HE CALLS HIMSELF GOD'S ANOINTED. It would be easy to overlook Moses Richardson in a crowded room. Humble, quiet, and almost shy, he waits patiently, speaks politely, and keeps to himself. His gentle persona almost conceals the passion locked inside his being, but hand him a microphone, and the flood gates to his soul are open. GA(God's Anointed) is his powerful, secret idenity-- bursting through the seams of his person and passionately delivering his lyrics with an energetic "in-your-face" style. Drawing from past experiences, situations, and relationships, this talented rapper/singer/songwriter/producer boldly and honestly challenges the issues of the Christian church, saying quite frankly "practice what you preach". G.A.'s newest release "Sin" is hard hitting-- not just musical, but lyrical. The song "Sometimer," address the hypocrazy of "Sunday-only" Christians, but does it in a the form of an easy groove, including a catchy chorus that has listeners singing along before they even know the words. "Sin," exposes the consuming nature of sin and the many forms which it takes, while "You don't know what i've been through" is a testament of G.A.'s life and journey from the streets, to the jail, to the church.
