Electronic/synthpop/darkwave with ebm/industrial influences. 14 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Techno, ELECTRONIC: Industrial Details: The long awaited self-titled debut release from halovox is finally available! The CD contains over 70 minutes of innovative and passionate synthpop/electronica. Includes "Deception," "Make Me Yours," "Save Yourself," "Foolish Slave," "Retrospect" and a breathtaking cover of the Depeche Mode classic "Fly On The Windscreen." Songs from this critically acclaimed release are already packing out the dance floors around the world. Previous reviews of the 4 song halovox promo CD that included "Deception", "Retrospect", "Disintegration" and Fresh Out": "New Jersey new wave group halovox combines modern electronic textures with a blackish blend of industrial and dark wave that goes back to the roots of the '80s U.S./U.K. sound. Depeche Mode-like electronic rhythms are mixed over melancholic vibes of solitude." - DownloadMusic Editors "The sound quality is excellent, and Frank's vocals are just as perfect as always. All four songs are really excellent, but 'Retrospect' is my favorite so far.. but that changes every time I listen to the disc.. This is a very promising set of songs, and I think the synthpop world is in for a very special treat when halovox's debut album is released in June! (4.5 Stars out of 5)" - Jason Baker|Synthpop.NET "halovox layers catchy beats and electro-spectacular patterns which seem to meld right into Frank's smooth voice. 'Retrospect' 'Deception' have become instant dance floor favorites while 'Disintegration' and 'Fresh Out' seductively grab hold of your heart and tug you into the magical world of synthpop ballads. (5 Top Hats - highest rating)" - Rev. Jayme|Culture Asylum Magazine
