During the mid-80s Javier, along with his brother Andru Dykes (also an accomplished songwriter and musician), decided that their musical abilities could not just be limited to themselves. Together, they decided to form a gospel singing group. In order for them to concentrate on song writing and musical arrangements, they enlisted the help of singer/choir director/vocal coach, John Heyward, Director of Music for Reid Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church. Throughout the years, God has allowed Javier Dykes Fellowship of Prz to minister the gospel through song to a wide array of people. After years of fasting and praying, God said that it was time to release this project. When listening to this project, you will be taken to a place when church was churchy. From lifting your hands in an ultimate praise with the title cut, Hallelujah Praise to the down-home foot stomping of I Cant Forget, Javier Dykes Fellowship of Prz will have your attention focused on God.
