Self described as breakbeat klezmer jazz; they draw on klezmer modes in a unique exploration of jazz and progressive rock rhythms with influences ranging from Yemenite to hip hop. 9 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Free Jazz, WORLD: Judaica Details: Juez is self described as breakbeat klezmer jazz; they draw on klezmer modes in a unique exploration of jazz and progressive rock rhythms with influences ranging from Yemenite to hip hop. While their compositions are experimental, their sound isn't inaccessibly dissonant. It is this formulaic blending of styles that gives this group such a wide appeal. Juez has performed with such artists as Satlah, Educated Consumers, Lemon Juice Quartet, MC Son of Nun, 302 Acid and Gutbucket at the Hillel International, Art-O-Matic, Modular Mood Klezmer party, the Jewish Folk Arts Festival, University of Maryland, Harvard and The Knitting Factory just to name a few.
