This is a acoustic driven, emotional rollercoaster, with hints of creative genius throughout. Justin is one of the premier up and coming solo artists in the north east. Definitely someone to keep an eye on. "I have never seen anyone do what he does on sta 5 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, POP: with Electronic Production Details: Justin is a talented self taught singer/songwriter from southern NH . He has honed his skills over the years with constant performances and dedicated practice. Having played with an array of other musicians throughout the New England area, he soon realized a solo career was the only true way he could explore those areas hidden deep within himself. Having been compared to similar song writers Dave Matthews and Howie Day, Justin continues to make quite a name for himself. His soulful performances speak volumes to everyone and anyone in any audience. The intensity of this performer is a rare gift to the music world. Justin is one of the most honest and raw performers you will ever hear/see, enticing you to want more of what he has to offer. This is what music is truly all about. Justin's solo debut is now available to the public and he will be touring constantly to support it. See you all out there!
