This CD would be classified as R&B with a touch of smooth jazz. Great vocals and lyrics. If you love good music this CD is for you. 13 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Traditional R&B, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: I grew up in a musical house hold. My mother made all six kids learn to play piano.I started writing poetry at age 10.At age 12 I wrote my first song. I also started playing alto saxophone at age 12. I played in various bands throughout high school. I was always in the school talent shows. As a teen-ager I started performing at weddings,anniversaries and parties. I have performed at many clubs in the Memphis area including on Beale Street. I have performed with saxophonist Mark Baker sang background for Miles Jaye and Melissa Morgan as well as performing with many local Mid South artist. This is my first solo project.My music is about love and relationships. I think everyone can find something on this CD to relate to. Whether you're in love,have lost a love or are looking for love you'll like this CD. It also has some very good dance songs. Especially for all you steppers. If you're in the mood to be alone with that special someone this is just what you need. I love performing live because I like to interact with my audience. I want you to feel like I'm singing just to you. This CD will make you feel good no matter what type of music you like.
