Financial management is an issue that affects everyone, particularly in today's international economy. People in all walks of life and at every socioeconomic level need wise counsel and sound, guiding principles to effectively manage money and acquire financial prosperity. Eugene Strite is a successful business owner and an internationally recognized financial expert. In Not Another Rich Idea, his practical, commonsense, and time-tested principles will give you all the information you need to manage your finances and build real wealth. You will learn the differences between true and false wealth, and between being rich and being wealthy. You will learn the importance of careful investing, and will be challenged to consider the often-overlooked and counterintuitive wealth-building principle of giving. If you are tired of always working for your money, and are ready to make your money work for you, Not Another Rich Idea is a book you need to read. Author: Strite, Eugene Publisher: eGen Co.
