Details: Recorded, almost in its entirety, after Chazz suffered a broken neck (Feb 09) in an auto accident. Chazz in neck brace with a cane delivers a gut reaching proclamation of what a man thinks and feels when hes lost at love. The man was in his element, the studio, singing as if this might be his very last opportunity to do what he truly loves, SING. And given the nature of his injuries, it may well have been, but we hope not. The voice is a little heavier, obviously from his injury. The mood serious. And Chazz Dixon delivers, not only as a singer but as a writer. Talking like a man in a group therapy session, baring his soul. Confessing a range of emotions men seldom share, much less admit. It's A TIME FOR CRYING. BUY IT NOW, the mp3 or the cd. From the Da'Soul Recordings Group, today's home for real soul.
