"Serious a cappella" a driving mix of popular tunes and exciting originals all done exclusively with the human mouth. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Today's Top 40, ROCK: Acoustic Details: "Serious A Cappella"!

Eclipse is a vocal group of six that creates explosive sound, driving rhythms, and lush harmonies using only one instrument, the human mouth. "Incredibly tight and sensitive with the capability to explode at any moment..." and "You won't believe that the only things up there are six guys and their microphones..." are just some of the reviews that have come recently from critics. Eclipse brings a perfect mix of hit new songs and exciting new arrangements of popular tunes to their new album "Once". From the catchy pop stylings of "Look my Way" to the tender but intense, tight harmonies of "Danny Boy" this album is sure to please all ranges of listeners. The men of Eclipse have twice been named Regional Champions of the Harmony Sweepstakes A Cappella Festival (the nation's premier showcase for vocal harmony music) and have received three nominations, including "Best Pop/Rock Album", in the Contemporary A Cappella Recording Awards. Eclipse was featured in both the Opening and Closing Ceremonies of the 2002 Olympic Winter Games. They also performed at three of the Medals Presentation Ceremonies along with daily performances at competition venues during all 17 days of the Olympics. In 2003, Eclipse was named "Best Vocal Group" at Utah's Best of State Awards and "Group Recording Artist of the Year" at the Faith Centered Music Association's Pearl Awards.
