A vivid electro-rap adventure; FRIDAY NIGHT is the story of a good time gone too far. Starring the lauded narrative styles of Serengeti and Hi-Fidel. Production by LA based production duo Breakfast. 15 MP3 Songs in this album (66:34) ! Related styles: ELECTRONIC: Electro, HIP-HOP/RAP: Rap Details: We begin the week as empty vessels. Each day we appear inert without, compressing within. The impulses we ignore, the words we bite off, the appetites we can't satisfy, by the time Friday comes, the pressure is too much. We are swelling at the rivets, and as our obligations vanish with the sunlight, we are finally free to run out into the darkness and throw the valve. Friday Night, we can sing her praises loud enough to be deaf to her dangers, the sound of the brakes failing drowned by the hiss in our ears. This is when Dave and Umar meet. They'd seen each other around the office, never having a reason to say more than hello. That was before they arrived at the same bar, stood up by the same girl. First they get a round of drinks, then they get to talking. The night is young, Umar has a car, and a friend in a high-rise up the coast who's got the re-adjustment they've been looking for Breakfast Records, proudly presents FRIDAY NIGHT: the story of a good time gone too far, starring the lauded narrative styles of HI-FIDEL and SERENGETI with guest appearances by BLACK SPADE, NASH and MICAH JAMES of THE 87 STICK UP KIDS, TELUV and more.
