Details: After nearly 20 years in and around New York City, and over 2500 performances on Broadway, including the original Broadway casts of EVITA and LA CAGE AUX FOLLES, Jack moved to Tucson in 1986. In addition to his Broadway performances he also performed in everything from low budget horror films, cruise ships, Catskills and Grand Opera. Since moving to Tucson, although gone from Broadway, it was hard for Jack to keep away from performing and he has utilized his talents for local charities, including Angel Charities for Children. He has appeared as a soloist with the Tucson Symphony Orchestra four times in their pop, Valentine, and holiday concerts. Also active in the arts community he has been seen, and continues to be seen, throughout the theatre community, including Pima College, SALOC, Music Theatre Arizona, and the Invisible Theatre. One of his proudest performances was his collaboration with Susan Claassen and Jeffrey Haskell in ONCE AND FOREVER, a musical tribute to Irving Berlin. He can be heard on his two CDs, REFLECTIONS and ABOUT TIME, both of which were arranged by fellow Philadelphian Jeffrey Haskell. His day job is one of the owners of The Planning Center, a Tucson based design company specializing in master planned communities, such as La Paloma, Rancho Sahaurita, Continental Ranch, and Dove Mountain.
