Creative by Father and son with Non-traditional Native American Flute Acoustic Guitar woven into Folk/Pop/Contempory style music, Easy to listen to with features of violin, saxophone, drums and bass. 12 MP3 Songs WORLD: Native American, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: 'One Voice' is our first attempt after receiving many request to have our original music to listen to. This is a father and son collaboration along with the help from many friends. That is basically how we came to be Many Nations. We wanted to Honor and recognize everyone's heritage and connection to eachother. Together we created melodies to memories, and our vision is available for you to hear. We hope you enjoy this musical journey, dedicated to our ancestors and the indeginous peoples of all Nations. Thayne (the father) is the singer songwriter/guitar player, and Taiowa (the Son) is the Bass player and co-arranger. We have been gifted with the honor and opportunity to share our hearts and souls together musically as we have walked through this life. Music has always held together our connection even during trying times.
