Acoustic/Pop/Rock 15 MP3 Songs POP: 60's Pop, ROCK: 70's Rock Details: Rain Songs is inspired by rain and relationships experienced in the following places: Belfast, Sheffield, Rochdale, Oldham, Manchester and London, Mandeville, Kingstown Town, Ocho Rios, Negril and Montego Bay, Chicago, San Salvador and Central America. The songs were originally recorded for the LP albums: Dont Call Us Well Call You (Jamaica, 1982), Dance With The Rain (El Salvador, 1991) and Red Beans And Rain Songs (El Salvador, 1991). Morena, my wife, kept insisting that I produce a CD version/compilation of my music whilst we were living in Colombia, South America. So who was I to argue with a public demand of one? Off I went into the Bogot streets, found Luis Fernando Ochoa and Rain Songs resulted. These days I make it my business to always enjoy what I do life is too short. Upon reflection of those days I really enjoyed every minute of the music making process and interacting with the many fine people and musicians that I met whilst in Jamaica and El Salvador. I hope that you will enjoy listening to these songs as much as I enjoyed making them. Always remember: You can touch for that is real Love will surely come your way Terry Christian - Tokyo, Japan - September 2006
