Unanimously noted for their enthusiastic performances and innovative audience building residencies, the ensemble has numerous commercial recordings under both the Naxos and Catalpa Classics labels, and is heard regularly on classical music radio including National Public Radio's All Things Considered and Performance Today. The ensemble has a new CD release of Joaquin Turina's Second Piano Trio and the Ravel Piano Trio titled "Playing with Fire", distributed by Eroica Classical Recordings (<http://eroica.com>) Other recent releases include a critically acclaimed recording of three American piano trios on the Naxos "American Music Series". On this CD are Trios by Gunther Schuller, Gerald Shipiro and Grammy Award Winner, Lalo Shifrin of "Mission Impossible" fame. Also released on the Catalpa Classics label are the two most requested works in the Eaken Trio's repertoire: The wonderful D minor, OP 49 Trio by Mendelssohn and the Anton Arensky D minor Trio. The CD is titled The Romantic Trio. Additional critically acclaimed recordings by the Trio includes Gershwin for Three, a CD of all original arrangements of some of George Gershwin's greatest music and Haydn Piano Trios. Eaken Trio CD's are available at finer record stores everywhere, on line at Amazon or toll free:1-800-289-6923 The ensemble's second holiday radio program, I'll be Home for the Holidays was aired on over 150 radio stations nationwide for the last eight years and will be heard across the country again this holiday season. This program was produced by WQED FM in Pittsburgh and coordinated with Habitat for Humanity International. Their recordings Home for the Holidays and I'll be Home for the Holidays were two of the top five best sellers nationwide for Naxos for the last five years. The Eaken Trio is proud of their community outreach programs that have helped to raise the awareness of the homeless problems in America and have generated tens of thousands of dollars to support organizations that help the homeless and homeless animals. The Eaken Trio maintains a rigorous touring schedule with recent performances in Maine, Maryland, Indiana, New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania. During the last three years, the group has returned for multiple tours in Europe with performances in England, France, Germany and Italy with their latest tour in June of 2006 presenting concerts for the Pennsylvania Ambassadors of Music in Venice, Verona, Milan, Lucerne, Munich, Strasbourg and Paris. In May of 2008, they will be touring in China. The Trio was in residence at Dickinson College in Carlisle, PA from 1991 through 2000 and continues to provide inspiring residencies throughout the United States. Their residency program, recognized by Chamber Music America as one of the five most successful in the Nation, involves students and faculty in chamber music through concerts, workshops, and an innovative curriculum integrating chamber music into virtually every aspect of liberal arts education. The Trio visits classes in music history, language, art, psychology, anthropology, dance, and the sciences exploring the relationships between music and the topic of study. The Eaken Trio is currently on the Pennsylvania Performing Arts on Tour roster of artists. Penn PAT promotes the Trio and provides grant assistance to presenters in Pennsylvania, Delaware, The District of Columbia, Maryland, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Virginia and the U.S. Virgin Islands.
