Discover how to ethically 'steal' thousands of followers from the twitter 'gurus' - without being banned, sued or thrown in jail! WARNING: Following the advice of the twitter gurus can get you banned for life from Twitter or worse. Just ask the spammers or software companies that have recently been sued by Twitter for spamming and enabling spam. Hard to believe? Sure is. But the fact is that these 'gurus' are broadcasting this false information day and day out, while there's a very small group of smart marketers pulling massive (non-spam) traffic from Twitter using 100 white-hat techniques. No risk of being suspended, banned...or worse. When you get your hands on this Manual you're going to discover how to ethically steal followers from even the biggest 'gurus' in your niche. This is an amazing shortcut secret to a massive list of followers that I haven't seen revealed anywhere else. It doesn't matter if these 'gurus' in your niche have used spammy tactics or software to build up their list of followers...because with this information you can siphon out the best of them and take them as your own. And like I said... there won't be any risk of losing your account or all the time and effort you've already spent setting it up. I remember what it was like when I first started trying to get traffic for my site using Twitter. It was pretty darn frustrating. All the conflicting advice, advice to start spamming and other twitter techniques that just plain didn't work. Over and over I tried the 'latest and greatest' Twitter methods without any success. I even had my account banned for spamming...even though I had no idea I was doing it (I was told it was totally legit...and I was lied to). Can you imagine what that would feel like if it happened to you too? All that hard work, all those hours, that money you paid for spammy software...gone. It's risky and zaps your mental energy (and pocketbook) very quickly. If you have the stomach for huge risks and an endless supply of energy...and maybe some even sneakier tricks up your sleeve to get your account back...then this option could work for you. Otherwise... Let me share with you how you can take the followers out of these 'gurus' hands.
