First-level management...it's where the most critical leadership needs must be met! Now more than ever, leadership is the determining factor in successful organizations. Building and sustaining a competitive advantage requires leadership at all levels, not just the top. First-level supervisors are in a unique position to provide this new leadership. This book has been developed for the first-level supervisor charged with providing leadership in a dynamic business environment. Using assessments, activities, and case studies, you'll learn how to manage the transition from supervisor to first-level leader, motivate and retain employees, lead with impact and influence, manage project and virtual teams, lead for competitive advantage, and craft and implement a plan for managing change. You'll learn the attitudes, skills, and behaviors needed to lead and prosper in your organization. You will learn how to:

- Make the shift from supervisor to first-level leader
- Identify key retention factors and create a climate for motivating and retaining employees
- Recognize and implement key influence strategies
- Build, lead and motivate project and virtual teams for marketplace success
- Identify and exceed customer expectations
- Plan for process improvement and strive for added value
- Manage the scope and speed of change
- Identify strategies to help you develop influence and communicate your vision
- Master techniques to help you better understand your organization's business, meet customer expectations, and ensure greater productivity and efficiency.
