and Engineer/Programmer/Guitarist Dan Rudin- combine elements of big-beat house, techno and jazz-funk into their own unique brand of dance music. Caruba and Rudin had been working together on recording sessions in Nashville for several years when Caruba (inspired by a live performance group he founded with Briggs) suggested they have a go at creating their own sound. In 2001 the trio holed up in Caruba's bungalow jamming, talking about their influences, and churned out some tracks that would eventually forge the basis for their first release, Naughty Kitty Cat. Caruba has played for Sara Evans, Steve Forbert, Glenn Frey, John Jorgensen, Toby Keith, Hal Ketchum, Tom Kimmel, Barry Manilow, The

Mavericks, , Kenny Rodgers, Lionel Richie, SheDaisy, Chester Thompson, Pam Tillis, and Kirk Whalum and is internationally recognized for his live and session percussion work. After more than a dozen years playing in clubs around the souther US and his home town of Nashville, Briggs is now resident DJ and music director of Fuse, Nashville's only Vegas-style nightclub. Dan Rudin is an independent producer/engineer/mixer. He works on diverse musical projects with artists around the globe from his facility in Nashville, My Space Recording. High School Musical, Matt Belsante, Newsboys, Wynonna, Tommy Torres, Riders in the Sky, Chayenne, The Katies and Flick are just a few of his hundreds of credits.
