I personally met Jay-z in Philly at Evolutions night club in 2002 for his album release party for Blueprint 2. I told him he was the best rapper since 2pac and Biggie. Then Jay-z told me that he feels me, and real recognizes real. I told Jay-z I want to get where he's at, he said keep doing what you be doing and you will get there. Then I want to give special thanks to Allen Iverson who I gave my cd to back in 2003 outside Toto night club in downtown Philly. I told him he was the livest basketball player, Iverson said thanks and gave me a hand shake. Then he said to me that I can be the best rapper just don't quit. Finally I got to give special thanks to the producers of this album. My nigga Dolla from SW Philly, Biff from North Philly, Slim Bridge from SW Philly, my nigga Big Chesse from South Philly, and Funky Fingers&Deion from Bridgeport,Connecticut. They all help me make this the biggest album on the internet and on the streets to date. These are the up and coming beat makers of the future.
