Powerful vocals, charismatic laugh, earnest lyrics: an unpretentious songwriter who sings from the heart. 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Ani, POP: Folky Pop Details: Voted five time winner of the Reader's Choice award of Best Musician in the Twin Cities (Lavender Magazine), Ellis continues to win fans nationally with her charismatic stage presence, powerful performances, and playful sense of humor. She is a musician that can bring her audience to tears - either because her powerful songs touch their hearts or because they are laughing too hard at her between-song banter and stories. Known for her vibrant and open-hearted nature, she is an engaging and dynamic singer, songwriter and guitarist. She tours full-time, performing her unique blend of folk rock music at more than 150 concerts each year. Ellis has a total of six full-length CDs her credit, four solo and two with her former band Bobby Llama (voted Best Unsigned Band in America in 2000). Ellis runs her own indie record company, and recently coordinated an all-benefit compilation CD of women's voices for peace (peacecd.com). Her recently released solo album TIGERS ABOVE, TIGERS BELOW was described as "a sobering work of folk rock beauty" (Local Planet) and has received significant airtime on radio stations across the country as well as rave reviews in dozens of publications. She has independently sold more than 20,000 copies of her albums and has a mailing list of thousands across the US.
