Rock, Pop, Latin Rock and a little bit some other Styles are involved in this production. We use Spanish, English and Spanglis on the Lyrics. Fdz Wesotros is a mix of Latinos and Anglo Americans. Thanks for looking at it. 12 MP3 Songs ROCK: Modern Rock, LATIN: Latin Pop Details: Eduardo Fernandez, is the founder and producer of this project. He started in 1982 playing rock music in a band called Raxe. Raxe had a great acceptance in Mexico, Texas and Panama. Raxe played original music and had presentations all over Mexico. Dunas was another band that he was part of. Eduardo's main style is Rock, but he also like Jazz Fussion... Whatever is played with intensity and has a concept is good. In FDZ Wesotros you will find a selection of different Styles. FDZ is Eduardo Fernandez, FDZ Wesotros are: Ana Cordero, vocals; Verna Law, vocals; Mario Cavazos, main vocalist; Amanda Brendel, vocalist; Heriberto Hernandez, vocalist; Jeff Higginbotham, drums; Joe Reda, bass; Tony Trujillo, bass; Jaime Cavazos, bass; David Scott, keyboards Sax; Tim Burle, rhythm guitar lead; Eduardo Fernandez, vocals, rhythm guitar, lead and keyboards. Special Assistance: Fernando Cavazos, Carlos Cubas, Luis Martinez Motta, Hector Garcia Marroqun, Daniel Martinez, Ely Mue, Jose Angel Tamez, Maria Salome Villarreal (my grand mother) that appears on the multimedia-bonus section on this CD with The Song, Cielo de Texas. After reading the names of Wesotros members, you will not have a hard time to find out why is called Wesotros. Spanglish is a New Age and is part of our Latino culture in United States of America, sometimes funny and sometimes very practical way to communicate your point across. Is good as long as the word and the language are not affected. If you want to know more about FDZ, please visit fdzband.com
