Isabel Quigley is one that makes you stop and take notice. Rick Steele, Perth Blues Club A virtual veteran of the Perth singer/songwriter scene at only 22, local songbird Isabel Quigley is poised to release her debut 7 track recording One Night Stand, recorded at Poons Head in 2006 with producer Rob Grant. Isabel is known on the Perth music scene as the charismatic and much loved presenter and performer at the Indi Bar open mic night in Scarborough- which she has helped build into an institution since taking the reigns in 2004. Described as pure crystal voice, Isabel is a highly regarded regular performer at the Perth Blues Club and in recent years has taken the stage at the Lakes Festival, Mojos Bar, the Indi Bar, Leederville Hotel, the Kulcha Club and the Paddington Ale House. Isabels music career started at age 7 playing the tin whistle and later the flute in traditional Irish bands at pubs and private functions. At 15, on a family holiday to Ireland her uncle gave her an acoustic guitar. In an inspiring environment, away from home Isabels music entered a new realm of expression thereby setting her off on her career as a singer/ songwriter. Isabels poignant writing is awash with glimpses of her own Celtic heritage whilst tipping its hat to blues and folk influences with the odd sprinkling of rock thrown in- she sites Joni Mitchell, Paul Rogers, Billie Holiday, Sinead O'Connor Phil Lynott amongst others. Looking to continue her live playing locally, Isabel is also planning a trip to Europe in the coming year.
