A singer/songwriter CD mostly R B and Country 11 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: R&B Pop Crossover, EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock Details: Jim was born in Brooklyn, NY but moved to Tennessee to pursue a writing career. he has a mixed sound because of the many influences he grew up with in NY and the new sounds he's come to love from living in the Nashville area. The songs on this CD are mostly positive with a message almost all people should enjoy. Latest news from the ECMA (European Country Music Association) is that Jim's single "Life's A Highway" came in on their top 250 songs by airplay at #172. Pretty cool!! That song and others from the CD are being played in a host of countries around the world. Take a listen to the samples and I think you'll agree that this CD can be enjoyed for many years to come. Jim Has also been involved in community theatre in Springfield, TN. Acting is his second love.
