With the anticipated arrival of his first child, Jusep found an unfamiliar inspiration to put pen to paper and write his first melody. After writing the first song, he began to continue on this wave of inspiration and within months, words became rhymes, rhymes became melodies, melodies to songs and songs to his album "Soft Place To Land". With the birth of his first son, Michael Sim, it was now time to share his melodies with the world. The titled song Soft Place to Land was inspired by discussions Jusep has had with parents and friends over the years. When asked, Jusep notes: I have always seen parenting as what a safety net is to a trapeze artist. If my child knows that there is a soft place to land, he can attempt bigger and greater feats knowing that both mommy and I are there to catch him if he falls. From the heart of a dad, the melodic rhythms shared by Jusep captures the gentle spirit of what it is to be a parent. He believes that children truly are a gift from God and a right of passage to become more human; to love without conditions.
