"Vibey, experimental rock/melodic, up down tempoed" 8 MP3 Songs ROCK: Psychedelic, EASY LISTENING: Mood Music Details: Hailing from NYC, THE FUZZ HAUNTED is the latest musical collaboration from Steve Dawson Randy Lord. The two were members/creators of the extroverted, costume-adorning 70s' rock/R&B quintet BAD ASS FRANKLIN THE STRANGTECULAR BAND. THE FUZZ HAUNTEDS' songs are the foundation of this record, each track has its' own identity, heavily marked by two distinct vocal harmonies of Lord Dawson. Many instruments ranging from loud, nasty guitar tones to accordions, singing saws, wisely used feedback, church organs and police sirens beautifully color the tracks, whizzing from left to right. Electronic-but-analog-spiced musical interludes bridge gaps between some songs, which gives this record a flowing continuity a listen through headphones is pleasing ear-candy. Dawson Lord wrote, played, sang recorded every note heard on this self-titled release, with help from drummer James Lord on three tracks . The Beatles' White Album era meets hints of Peter Gabriel, Tom Waits and Guided By Voices might be a good comparison. In 2004 T.F.H. performed as an atmospheric duo around Manhattans' Lower East Side. Now, the group is performing with a full band, capturing the sound on their latest record.

----- On Monday, November 7th, NPR (National Public Radio) will begin their exclusive feature on THE FUZZ HAUNTED , as the premiere artist to represent their first ever Podcast, streamed from their ALL SONGS CONSIDERED/OPEN MIC show.
