Edward L. Williams In the Fall of 1976, Edward L. Williams was born to Edward L. and Graceina Williams. However, 20 years later in the fall of 1996, The Spiritual Lyricist was born. At birth, the Holy Spirit was heavily upon this future man of God. Numerous prophecies and blessings were spoken over him and to him. It was only a matter of time before God would purge, refine and reshape this broken vessel. The call on his life was to take the youth to a higher level in the anointing of God. To expand their knowledge of God and enhance their love for God. As he began his journey, his experiences began to personify the word God eventually put in his mouth. A word that would teach and rebuke, correct and edify. Being a true visionary of God, he has been able to preach and teach through music. God has divinely sealed this futuristic psalmist to sound the "latter day" alarm through the most influential means of communication in this hour, HIP-HOP. Not just HIP HOP, but prophetic HIP-HOP with lyrics inspired from the Holy Spirit. Utilizing a cultural blend that has the power to persuade and set trends for this generation, just as Paul did in his day. The music of the Spiritual Lyricist surpasses the boundaries of race, denomination, and tradition. His mission is to educate, bless and encourage God's people in this hour. To build up the spirit man with prophetic words for today and wake the natural man to the sound of this millennium. In short....A word in song for this hour! The Vision Statement First and Foremost to give and bring God glory, honor and praise, to reach this chosen generation through our form of praise and worship; to lift up the name of Jesus Christ that he may draw all men unto himself. To spread the knowledge of God's Word with love, to empower a nation to represent that which is good and not evil, to lead today's youth to a higher in the understanding of their purpose here on earth as it is ordained in heaven. To stir up the gift of the royal priesthood, to be an example of the believer, to be an inspiration to the backslider, that they may come back to My Father's House with a new heart, and renewed spirit, to preach freedom to the prisoner. Its not about the music or myself, but about God and His desire that none shall perish but all come to the knowledge of the truth.
