"Strong Latin influences define a musical palette of modern/alternative folk speckled with jazz and other indefinables redolent of Ani Difranco. Spiritually charged lyrics layered with beatboxes and scats give Perez a sound uniquely satisfying 11 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Ani, URBAN/R&B: Contemporary urban Details: There's a Perez I know she's THEResA P. sent her beats to the box on my street with beat box vox and strings an "all together" new thing causing hips to swing and yes indeed this "T" is hot steeped in the north infusing the west drifting aromatic and we are the blessed (Stephen Beck, Chapel Hill, NC) From slapping the guitar to Brazilian rhythms, to stomping feet in a fired frenzy while hammering a montuno away at the piano, this music never gets boring. Whether on guitar, piano, hand percussion, or a capella, this performer will capture your heart and stir your soul with her grace and energy. "She sings from a place deep within with neither inhibition or fear. She pushes her breath around the lyrics breaking into beats and pauses and heat. She strums the guitar in steady confidence losing herself to the sound. She moves over piano keys with unusual grace her hands an extension of her smile. Theresa Perez will be an artist to watch for years - her music at once playful and desperate her spirit both childlike and wise." -Elizabeth Armstrong "Solo artist Theresa Perez sings sweetly yet funkified, and soul drips from her fingers when she plays the guitar. But it is the piano through which she serves us an acoustic hot tamale. Theresa's music comes from an uncharted place off the map where cultures converge and unnecessary rules are stripped away. Strong Latin influences define a musical palette of modern/alternative folk speckled with jazz and other indefinables redolent of Ani Difranco. Spiritually charged lyrics layered with beatboxes and scats give Perez a sound uniquely satisfying on many levels." -Olivia Kobelt
