Details: Wendy Zoffer has always loved singing for preschoolers, a totally rewarding experience. She wrote Grady the Duck and Jolly, Jolly Baby when her own kids were small, and continued composing songs throughout the years. Whether performing as a classical flautist or playing jazz, as in her first CD, Bird of Beauty, Wendy projects her love of music to the audience. As a singer, she has captivated young audiences with her musical diversity, and through her latest recording, Sing Me a Day, continues to share her songs and creativity with children, everywhere. Here is a list of the wonderfully talented musicians who helped make this recording. Spook Handy vocals Andy Bernstein vocals Dave Schlossberg piano Nels Anderson - banjo, harmonica Nick Antonaccio - guitar Gerry Hemingway - drums, percussion Karl Kaminski bass Dave Rimelis, rhythm guitar and the amazing Timm Mulhern, engineering/mixing/sound effects
