Piano and violin anchor this collection of heartbreaking ballads and stirring uptempo songs that straddle the line between pop music and Broadway-style cabaret. 12 MP3 Songs in this album (47:32)! Related styles: EASY LISTENING: Cabaret, POP: Piano Details: This CD tells the story of a young man who loses someone that he loved with all his heart. The story begins during the last days of their relationship, proceeds through the moment of the break-up, and chronicles the young mans struggles over the following year as he tries to find the inner strength to move on. Though often down, he never loses hope, and knows that someday things will get better. By the closing lines, he is finding peace and becoming free. Someday appears to be arriving in his life.
