Andrea Priora is an italian keyboard player, music composer and producer, specialized in creating deep and vibrant melodies inside soundscapes of various genres: Electronica, Nu-Ambient, Soundtrack, Techno, Dream and Trance. Having grown with '80s songs and electronic music in his ears, he was always enchanted by synthetizers sounds and so this guided him in 1989 into music made with electronics, merging together synthetized sounds and acoustic ones inside "mind voyaging" soundscapes. And getting finally also into trance and dream genres, merging his sounds, his ambients, and his tunes with a more aggressive and driving rhythm, he has the right feeling to attract also techno and dance audience with more emotional tunes. Now he is moving a lot along the way of soundtracks, merging orchestral sound with his unique electronic and acoustic mix. Not bond to one style only, Andrea isn't typically mainstream, trying to build something deep in music that goes beyond the fashion of the moment. He has his unique and distinctive sound and his original touch: people who know

Andrea usually describe him as "a personal marked style in a mix among Jean Michel Jarre, Vangelis, Hans Zimmer, Enigma and Robert Miles. In his songs he expresses his sensations, his emotions and his dreams. Most of people who listen to his music told they have like the sensation of being able to "touch" his music, due to his emotional approach. Andrea had also some success over mp3for a couple of years, reaching first places in some charts during the golden years of this site, some hundred thousands of downloads, selling his music all over the world (even in the exact opposite of earth) and earning lot of true fans happy of discovering and listening to his music. He even influenced some new musicians too.

Andrea has composed 5 full albums till now, and a 6th one is going to coming out after Destiny | Beyond My Ice | Trance Flares | Neuromantic Visions | Fairy Dazzles. And now thanks to this "Flares Beyond My Vision" collection cd... are you ready to let your mind fly with the music composed by Andrea Priora? ;)
