From the Great Lakes to the North Atlantic, Hall sings soul-stirring songs about history's most famous vessels and the brave men and women who have sailed aboard them. 16 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Acoustic Details: Dan Hall is funny, poignant, unavoidably engaging and one of Michigan's finest treasures. Phil Doolittle, North American Folk Alliance I had Dan's maritime music on my radio show within 24 hours of my first listening. It's that rare combination of great music and history. Matt Watroba, producer/host of Folks Like Us, WDET Public Radio, Detroit. Of Dan's CD, "1000 FT. Keel," Great Lakes Cruiser Magazine had this to say, "This is a watershed recording which raises the bar for all future maritime music. It is the Sergeant Pepper of its genre." In addition to theme music for television, "Discovering Michigan Presents The Northern Experience," several jingles and original music for the feature film, "The Lost Treasure of Sawtooth Island" starring Ernest Borgnine, Dan co-wrote the soundtrack for several Great Lakes documentaries: Expedition '94 to the Edmund Fitzgerald, Deep Quest, Inc; The Gales of 1913, WNEM TV5; Final Run, and Cutter Rescue, Air Worthy Productions. Dan has been performing since the age of 10, pursuing traditional and non-traditional outlets for his surging creativity and unstoppable enthusiasm. He is able to take common themes and then find unique ways to blend them into uncommonly solid musical combinations. His impish sense of humor, with a stand-up comics sense of timing and an impersonators facial flexibility, helps him connect with his diverse audiences. Dan turns up laughter when least expected, and taps into the unrestrained joy that great song writing can inspire. As a composer, singer, guitarist, maritime history presenter and humorist, Dan has delighted multi-age audiences around the country for more than 20 years. His historically accurate songs about the triumphs and tragedies of life aboard Great Lakes freighters are fast becoming a part of Michigan's rich maritime history.
