ELECTRONIC: Industrial, ROCK: Goth Details: D_composure is a south Florida based electronic/rock outfit fronted by singer/songwriter/producer: Joseph Beaty and producer/engineer: Ryan Copt. Joseph and Ryan are formerly of the semi-national act, Mindlikewater. Bassist Bill Jarrett and Guitarist Matthew Short unify Beaty and Copt's already solid musical vision. Together, they also work as an artist development team in conjunction with nationally known producer/engineers, Tony Bongiovi (Ramones, Talking Heads, etc.) and Joseph Butera III (Deepside: A Jive records recording artist.) through affiliate studios: Powerstation Studio of Pompano Beach and Avalon Recording Studio of Port Saint Lucie, FL. The main objective is to obtain investor interest to bring D_composure to a national market by way of internet and live promotion. Over the last year, D_composure has been in a constant state of writing with over 4 albums of rough material to pick and choose from. The live performance is being put together with kid gloves. A four piece band has been assembled to achieve our goals visibly as well as sonically. Members of D_composure have opened for numerous national acts including, Muse, The Faint, Jet, Switchfoot, Something Corporate, Yellowcard, Fuel, Sevendust, Alien Ant Farm, Hoobastank, One, Trapt, Eve 6, Smile Empty Soul, Less than Jake, Die Trying, Taking Back Sunday, The Explosion, Presidents of the United States of America, Lostprophets, Kottonmouth Kings, The Music, Story of the Year, Nonpoint, Skindred, NewFoundGlory, The Used, Korn, Now it's Overhead and countless others. Joseph Beaty has played in venues spanning from Florida to NYC and Boston, garnering national revue with albums released under the Mindlikewater moniker. Only a handful of test performances including acoustic shows have been performed under the D_composure name. All of which were received with amazing local response. A street team is in the works alongside a D.I.Y. assault to promote the self produced/self released album, "Keep the World Out." D_composure's plans are all things immediate and futuristic. A modern sound with a knack for being ahead of the curve. Understanding all facets of music equally. Aiming to please fans of melodic emotion and true subject matter. It has been said by local fans of the band that D_composure single-handedly defies all genres of music with a blend of melodic voices, hard-hitting beats, electronic soundscapes, explosive guitars, breathtaking string and piano arrangements. D_composure will re-define music with a new way to express the current state of chaos that is the world with unmeasurable layers of noise to contrast delicate and approachable songs.
