Funky jazzy soulfull House Down Tempo 12 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: House, ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo Details: Eklektica - is the virtual band for an evolving reality. Lior "Classic-L" Rosner, a film and television composer, has recently written the main title theme for the new Ellen DeGeneres show and contributed music to the 2003 Grammy Awards show. Classic-L, who has worked extensively for Fox, Warner Bros. and Disney, has used his XXLRG gifts to lure some of Hollywood's most talented stealth singers into the studio to create 11 extraordinary tracks that freely blend and twist house, lounge, R B, and jazz into an album that is truly Outside the Box. Classic-L is joined by the versatility and virtuosity of Sharlotte K. Gibson, a singer-songwriter. Gibson co-wrote the Ellen theme with Classic-L and has appeared in the studio and on stage with pop legend Whitney Houston and rap superstars from Queen Latifah to Snoop Doggy Dogg. Eklektica also features Joel Bowers, an accomplished musician who has worked as a studio singer, established himself as a gospel soloist, and has worked as a supporting vocalist for pop divas Christina Aguilera and Maya. Bowers has also been heard recently singing background for the contestants on American Idol. To add a splash of flash to the mix, joining Eklektica on Electric Ecstasy is all 6'4" of RuPaul who delivers a passionate performance that proves once again, it takes more than 10 pounds of makeup and a wig to keep your crown as Duchess of Drag.
