From an early age, GIA knew exactly what she wanted to do, SING! This 21-year-old has dreamed of touching others with her gift, a gift that hypnotizes listeners into a trance impossible to break. It has always been my desire to sing and perform, GIA states. I crave to see the expression of the crowd as I sing. Ive come a long way over the past few years. I am not only a woman now, I am an ENTERTAINER. What is so captivating about GIAs talent is her versatility. She has an amazing range like the great divas who can interpret a ballad with maturity and grace. Yet, her sound is sultry coupled with new-school-rhythm and blues flavor similar to Beyonce and the powerful range of Fantasia. Each note reverberates with an intertwining of intense feeling, just as smooth live than if recorded; a natural talent that doesnt need any gloss or touch-ups. Since the age of 15, GIA has received professional vocal lessons in an effort to control her big voice. She has grown over the years and that big voice has turned into a fine-tuned instrument. I truly believe GIA will be one of the greatest vocalists and performers of all time, states Tremaine Rose, GIAs manager and friend. Ive seen her move grown men to tears through song. Its a phenomenal experience to hear Gia sing live. In addition to her performances and training, this natural talent writes and arranges lyrics with local producers. It is obvious why audiences are moved after a GIA performance. Her voice is strong, sweet, sultry, sexy, and classy; every clich imaginable, except GIA is the real deal. GIA has performed two years in a row at the Billboard/AURN R&B/Hip Hop Conference where she stole the show in the new artist showcase. She has opened up for major recording acts, Jody Watley and Shanice. She has touched thousands with her voice across the country from Chicago to New York City to Miami. Its about that time. Get ready world!
