Sensual Soul. Experience the artistry that is JACNIQUE. Sensual, luscious vocals over smooth grooves. Indulge yourself. 10 MP3 Songs URBAN/R&B: Smooth Soul, JAZZ: Smooth Jazz Details: Jacnique, The Hypnotist. It was once said that, only passions, great passions can elevate the soul to great things. The very essence of that statement is reflected in the mind, body, soul, and music of Jacnique Harris-Love. Known to her fans simply as Jacnique, this San Francisco songstress embodies all the qualities of a natural superstar. She is an avid songwriter, pristine vocalist, and a runway renaissance woman. With graceful elegance, seductive sensuality, sassy sophistication, and an astonishing voice that seems to trace the very beat of your heart, she sends her audiences into a hypnotic frenzy. Her soul-laced jazz represents a harmonic groove in a world full of ambient noise and sound. Jacnique does not get by on an image or any gimmicks; she is exactly the person you see on stage. She eats, sleeps, and breathes the class, grace, passion, and essence of what it is to be Jacnique. Jacniques hypnotic like musical skills were developed early on in her life. From the age of 5 years old, those closest to her could see a prodigy in the making as she virtually mesmerized her family and peers with her God given talents. While making the transition from adolescence to early womanhood, Jacnique joined a girl group called Ynturaj. Although she had some wonderful experiences with the group, it was not too long before Jacnique realized that she no longer needed an entourage to solidify her presence as an artist. Before she knew it, she began making quite a name for herself on the Bay Area club scene performing alongside well know jazz guitarist, Tony DeWayne. Before long, she was gracing stages and receiving critical acclaim from Hollywood, CA to Las Vegas, NV and in her home town of San Francisco, CA. In 2006 Jacnique started her own independent record label and publishing company, SirenFire Music Works and SirenFire Music Publishing. Not to disappoint her public, the dynamic diva has just put the finishing touches on a project that is guaranteed to touch the hearts and souls of her fans, critics, and the world for that matter! New compositions such as Toy Box, Believe In Love and Trial By Fire have astounded those fortunate enough to get a taste of the home cooked meal she is preparing for a somewhat famished industry. Jacnique (pronounced Zsanique) represents the epitome of artistry. She personifies everything that is femininity, everything that is sensuality, everything that is graceful, everything that is musical, and everything that represents class. She masterfully combines all of those elements and creates her own clever blend of artistic brew that continues to intoxicate audiences the world over. If it is truly passion that elevates the soul to great things, then Jacniques music is the product of that passion. The word elegance has finally found a symbol to define it; that symbol goes by the name, Jacnique.
