Details: Jistoray is a power-folk-rock-funk trio fronted by passionate and poetic singer/guitarist Carl Torgerson and flanked by John Stilinovichs jazzy, in-the-pocket drumming and Donald Brummers groove-fueled, funky, melodic bass. The songs of Jistoray arent easy to classify, but theyre easy to sink into, explore, enjoy and find yourself inspired. For need of comparison, try these, all at once: Jeff Buckley, Dave Matthews, Red Hot Chili Peppers, Leo Kottke, Jill Scott, Phish, Les Claypool. The Pulse Minneapolis recognizes in Jistorays songs an unmistakable stamp of spirited originality. Lyrically, the music offers a colorful and insightful hybrid of Bob Dylan and Tom Marshall; from train-hoppin grit to anthemic power, this group is pleasantly diverse. Footprints is the first album from Jistoray followed by the much anticipated sophomore release, Hollywood Onstage, the three are electric, and synergistic, blending Johns jazzy tinges of Dennis Chambers with Donnys rhythmic Claypool-ness and Carls Kottke-meets-funk-grass approach. Thanks for listening and stay well! Instrumentation Carl Torgerson - Lead Vocals/Guitar/ Keys/ Mandolin/ Percussion Donny Brummer - Bass/Vocals/ Bells John Stilovich - Drums/ Percussion
