Here are three reviews from churches where Michael has shared his music and testimony. Dear Michael, I wanted to take time to express our thanks and appreciation for your ministry in music and testimony that you shared with us on July 17, 2005. It was very evident that your time with us had been for months lifted up in prayer, not only by us, but by you and your team as well. The Spirit of God was evident through you. For our worship team it was a special time to sit back and be ministered to as you very masterfully led our congregational worship, as well as sharing a word in song. Our church body is still commenting on how your message and your method touched their hearts. God has truly gifted you as a singer, song writer and worship leader. Your band was an added blessing - they are truly gifted as well! We enjoyed your mix of musical styles, the message of the lyrics and the personal testimonies all in a well-paced, professional, excellent worship service. Pastor Vanessa Chitwood Living Hope Christian Fellowship Michael, Thank you for coming and ministering in such an effective way. Your spirit and music touched our hearts - I both laughed and cried with your message in word and song. Over the past few months leading up to the concert, I noticeably felt your sense of ministry calling and your commitment to bathe your time with us in prayer. I had the feeling that you were asking God to prepare you and make you adequate in every way to be his good servant. Thank you for attending to this important task. God has unusually gifted you as a solo artist, song writer, and as a leader in worship. Our people enjoyed the message of your songs, your testimonies, the pace of the concert and the mix of musical styles. Extra fun for us, was to have the excellent band and back-up vocals which you brought with you for this concert. Thanks again, Michael - we would love to have you again! May the Lord bless you in your wonderful ministry.

To Whom It May Concern,

This is a letter of recommendation for the music ministry of Michael Tolf. Bethany Covenant Church recently hosted a concert that highlighted the music of Michael Tolf and his band. The concert was a great success. Michael brought to it a great combination of organization, musicianship, humility, fun, creativity, and spiritual depth. His band was well rehearsed and professional. Michael brought with him a particular sensitivity to our church setting and was a pleasure with which to work. Michael has also served our congregation in the roll of part-time worship leader and has done a great job of encouraging our own musicians and leading the people of our church into the presence of God.
