Starnes&Shah's music highlights vocal harmony in songs ranging from slow folk to upbeat rock. 9 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk-Rock, ROCK: Folk Rock Show all album songs: summer in the woodshed Songs Details: What happens when a rock'n'roll hopeful from Lebanon, a church choir Texan, and a New Mexican metal drummer walk into a rehearsal space? It's true, Starnes&Shah are least likely to be your friendly harmonizing folk band, but they won't take no for an answer. Despite the obvious differences, you will find them cramped on small stages in New York City playing the songs that bring together Dania Abu-Shaheen's raw self-taught style and Zilpha Starnes' structured choral training. At the forefront are the intricate vocal harmonies sweetly delivering Abu-Shaheen's songs and playfully mocking the ironic grouping of the Arab expat, the Dixie deportee, and the desert drifter.
