Kevin has performed and produced his first self titled album TEE KAY. This is what we call "hood good" music. The perfect CD to ride and drive too. The relaxed and rough tracks of this LP have caught the attention of music listeners who especially take pride in their sound systems. Catching fame from mom and pop stores in each neighborhood where he has grown up have brought immediate attention from riders and beat bangers alike. The Midwest and South alike share in the ritual of cruising the streets and neighborhood parks to show off their cars and sounds. For years you could find Kevin in front of a drum machine composing and recreating his favorite drum patterns and songs. Starting out as a live drummer, he practiced with his father who was a professional drummer playing for artists like Stevie Wonder and Gladys Knight. Over time as Hip Hop flooded the sound waves, he mastered a style of his own, influenced by artis314-503-6198 Jon, Triple Six Mafia and UGK. You will find in his production a vibe that is Down South "Trill" and Midwest "Derrty." TEE KAY, unmistakably your Hood Good music.-
