Ethereal Folk Rock 12 MP3 Songs FOLK: like Joni, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: TONI BROWN Singer / Songwriter/ Guitarist / Producer / Festival Consultant Rabbit Hole Soul is a departure from Toni Brown's first two releases, Blue Morning and Dare To Dream. This is a stripped down affair between her and the listener. Toni has opted for a gentle approach that highlights maturing vocals and the essence of her spirit. Intense songs of the heart make this Toni's most intimate effort. Toni Brown spent most of her life in music's visceral fold. From 1980-2000, Toni was publisher of Relix Magazine, a bible amongst Dead Heads and a visionary link to "intelligent music alternatives." Relix effectively helped spawn the improvisational jamband scene and provided scores of new bands with the propulsion to jump-start their careers. Toni has been touring for over ten years, appearing nationally at clubs, theaters and festivals, and has toured in Japan. She has shared the stage with Merl Saunders, Hot Tuna, Vince Welnick, Bela Fleck, Jazz Mandolin Project, David Nelson Band, Memphis Pilgrims, JGB, Tom Constanten, Illuminati, Zen Tricksters, Leftover Salmon, ekoostik hookah, Living Earth, New Riders of the Purple Sage, Buddy Cage, Max Creek, David Gans, Juggling Suns, Peter Rowan, Vassar Clements and many others. Currently playing music and writing full time, Toni Brown has found her creative niche in the singer/songwriter tradition, weaving an evolving musical tapestry of soul drenched color and passion. Ethereal Folk Rock at its best. Rabbit Hole Soul has been receiving airplay nationally, and she has been touring the eastcoast with her full band and special guest Tom Constanten (Grateful Dead keyboardist).
