A dash of Shania, a bit of Faith, a pinch of Wynonna and a shot of Patsy and you get Victoria Boland, a "future Canadian superstar". 12 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Country Pop, COUNTRY: Modern Country Details: Perhaps the most accurate label for the talented international entertainer and songwriter, Victoria Boland, is "variety artist". With experience and credits that include 2 scholarships to Boston's Berklee College of Music for jazz vocals, and first place wins in both the 2000 and 2004 Canadian Open Country Singing Championships, Victoria is skilled in diverse genres and explores those to the limits when writing, singing or entertaining. Since releasing and touring with her country cd "ALL WOMAN GIRL" in 2001, Victoria has also had the thrill of working and recording with members of Elton John's band. At this time, Victoria is on a 4-month engagement in Hong Kong where she is performing as part of a legends show, impersonating Tina Turner, Marilyn Monroe, Cher and Shania Twain. Speaking of Shania Twain, Victoria sang to a standing ovation from 18,000 of Shania's fans at a concert in 1999. Victoria has also been a guest performer at Queen Elizabeth's Golden Jubilee celebrations in 2002, and the opening ceremonies of the World Cycling Championships in 2003. Victoria has several fascinating websites that include lots of video, press reviews and booking information. All are accessible via her primary site (link on the left) Catch Victoria performing as Shania Twain or Marilyn Monroe or as herself. It's worth the visit!
