ZOLA, born in South Africa, started performing on stage at age eight, began writing songs not long after that and was soon featured in Cape Town's leading general business bands. She developed an Educational Entertainment Program for children and has since written, directed and produced a number of musicals. Since 1986, ZOLA has been living in Newton, Massachussetts, where she continues to teach and entertain children. (Rated "...one of the best" in Boston Parents Paper). REVIEWS: "Zola's songs are delightful - filled with powerfully positive messages, beautiful imagery and her simply incredible voice. Her style is both captivating and engaging . ZOLA makes children shine with her enthusiasm and energy. Parents are constantly raving to me about Zola and her tapes and CDs, saying that no matter how often they play her music, they NEVER tire of it....." Barrie Keller, Performing Cultural Arts Director-Jewish Community Centre, New England "When thinking of Zola and American Popular music, the one word that comes to mind is "savoir". Her voice and compositions have an emotion and romance that wrap around you like the sounds of days gone by, with a command of the heart that is rarely found in music today." Eric Preusser, Producer, Magnetic Music "Zola's performance really impressed me. She is a talented songwriter with a wonderful personality and a great voice. She stands out as an individual and that is so important." Ron Gill, Jazz DJ-WGBH Radio, 89.7 FM BOSTON.
