Saturate, with the help of the Steve Deal Band takes the listener into a new level of worship. From rocking praise songs, "I Will Wait" and "Saturate" to strong, meaningful worship ballads such as "Heaven" and "Covered in Grace", this cd gives you a small taste of our weekly worship experience. "Running to You", co-written by worship leader Colleen Crumbley, is a heartfelt cry to God that will move you. Nick Marcarelli's "Magnify", led by worship leader Jon Day, is just a sample of the newest generation of worship leaders, musicians, and songwriters at C3Atlanta. Worship leaders Steve Deal, Pam Jordan, Jon Day, Colleen Crumbley, and Johanna Hellhake are amazing vocalists that will lead you into deeper worship. With all of this incomparable talent in one place, Saturate won't let you down. C3Atlanta was established in 1996 when Dean Jill, along with their sons Barnabas and Jacob, moved from Sydney, Australia to the US for the sole purpose of planting the church in Lawrenceville...a church that would bring a freshness and modern presentation of the gospel. The Sweetmans are building an influential relevant church culture reaching today's generation. Now, seven years later, the church has grown exponentially and the many talented musicians that call C3 Atlanta home are sharing their passion for amazing praise and worship. The music found on Saturate reflects the vision of C3Atlanta. It highlights not only the Steve Deal Band but also the many other gifted musicians, songwriters, and singers that attend and contribute to the growth and success of C3Atlanta. If you are looking for music that will expand the way you worship, take you closer to God, and excite you with His presence, Saturate will not disappoint.
